Pleasant Reception

The ladies of the Presbyterian Sewing Circle tendered a farewell reception to Mrs. W. S. Smith, who is to leave town next week for her new home in Fort William, Ont., at the Presbyterian Vestry on Friday evening.

A large number of intimate friends were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

During the evening Mrs. Smith was presented with a fine silk umbrella, Pastor Hess making the presentation, after which an original poem, written by Mrs. Hess, was read by Miss Ruth Kerr and was heartily received.

Road Conditions

The roads in this section continue to improve. Work on the State road in Hodgdon has been completed, and the work well done.

The Walker Road has been graded and is in the usual good condition, and the road along the Horseback into Cary has had some work on it.

The road just this side of Cary's Mills has been graded, but should be smoothed some, where it has been packed down. At the foot of Frisbie Hill the road will be widened and graded.

The North road is in fine shape and all the roads leading from it are in good condition. The work of building the new road from Maple to Washburn Street has been completed and is a fine piece of work, done with the $1500 received from the 1912 automobile fund.

The work on the road in Hodgdon on the Bangor road is being pushed, and all of it in bad shape, but with the $2000 received from 1912 automobile fund, it should be much improved.

Jarvis--Dow

A charming home wedding took place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wetmore, Franklin St., when their sister, Miss Ellen Agnes Jarvis, was united in marriage to Walter Scott Dow of Portsmouth, N. H.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Davis in the presence of immediate friends and relatives. Miss Jarvis has lived in Portsmouth for several years and has a good circle of friends. She is a sister of her mother's, a very young woman with the Houlton Savings Bank.

Mr. Dow is also a young man having lived in Portsmouth since his employment in the U. S. Army, Dept. of the B. & A. R. R. where a year ago he resigned his position here to take the position of engineer in the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

The bride received a large number of valuable presents of our place, sterling silver, etc. from her friends. After the ceremony a dainty wedding luncheon was served, which was enjoyed by about twenty of her friends.

The newly weds left on the 7:15 train for Kittery, Me., where they will reside. A large party of friends were on hand to bid them "bon voyage."

Their many friends extend congratulations.

W. C. T. U.

A very enthusiastic meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Tuesday, June 24th. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Frances McLeod, president; Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw, treasurer; Mrs. Jennie Dunn, corresponding and recording secretary. After fourteen years of faithful service, Mrs. Mary Bumpus resigned her office of treasurer. With one or two exceptions last year's superintendents of department work were appointed.

It was decided to hold the annual W. C. T. U. picnic and a committee was appointed to select the time and place, notice of which will be given later.

This was the last meeting of the W. C. T. U. for the year until September when the work will again be resumed.

It is especially requested that during the summer vacation all members keep an account of any work done during the summer along the line of calls on the sick, hospital calls, distributing flowers, literature, and responding to calls of the needy in any way.

The Selectmen mean business on the Statute relating to persons filling up the ditches by cultivating out to the roads, as will be seen by a notice in another column.

Misses May and Lizzie Dobbins arrived in town Monday from Lawrence, Mass., and will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McLaughlin, Riverside St.

James Adair of Littleton, who formerly lived on the Foxcroft Road, during a temporary aberration of mind committed suicide by hanging last week. Mr. Adair was well known in this town, and friends will regret his unfortunate death.

An impromptu band under the direction of a "skilled musician" tendered a complimentary serenade on Friday evening to Mr. and Mrs. N. Tompkins, Washburn St., on their return from a short wedding trip.

Showered With Linen

Miss Beth Kirkpatrick, Green St., gave a linen shower last Friday evening in honor of Miss Ellen Agnes Jarvis, whose marriage took place Saturday.

About twenty young ladies were present and a pleasant evening was enjoyed. During the evening refreshments were served.

O. E. S. Club

The annual picnic of the O. E. S. Club, held at Littleton, N. B., on Friday, June 28th, was a very successful one. The picnic was held on the grounds of the Littleton Hotel, and was attended by about fifty members and their families.

50th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg

Last Saturday morning veterans from this town and vicinity started from Portland to join the Maine delegation who left Sunday by special train for Gettysburg, where a four days' celebration will take place commemorating the 50th anniversary of the greatest battle of modern times.

It is estimated that 10,000 veterans both Northerners and Southerners, will take part in the celebration.

Each state in the Union has made an appropriation to cover transportation charges for its old soldiers, while the government is to pay for the entertainment while they are in camp. The Maine delegation numbers about 500.

The Houlton contingent includes: John Q. Adams, 6th Me. Battery; Francis H. Ingram, 1st Me. Cavalry; B. Frank Clifford, Co. H 20th Me. Inf.

Benj. F. French, Linneus, Co. H 20th Me. Inf.

Notice of Foreclosure

Whereas Joseph Morin "La Mack", and St. Louis Morin, his mother, then of Wallagrass Plantation, in the County of Aroostook and State of Maine, by their mortgage deed, dated June 10th of 1904, and recorded in the Northern Aroostook Registry of Deeds, in Volume 67, Page 400, conveyed to Olphie Onelotte, of Fort Kent, Maine, the following described real estate and premises situate in said Wallagrass Plantation, State and County aforesaid, to wit: "Our homestead farm on which we now live, and bounded on one side by the highway leading from Fort Kent to Ashland (on the opposite side by Wallagrass stream; on another side by land of Mack Morin, and on the fourth side by the base line, or rear line of said farm." And whereas the said Olphie Onelotte, by his assignment, dated Nov. 2nd, 1911, and recorded in said Registry, Vol. 58, Page 544, assigned said mortgage and the debt thereby secured, to me the undersigned.

Now therefore the condition of said mortgage is broken, by reason whereof the said George I. Trickey claims a foreclosure of the same, and gives this notice for that purpose. Fort Kent, Maine, June 25th, 1913. GEORGE I. TRICKEY.

By his Attorney, A. G. FENLASON.
